

How the 40 Developmental Assets Help Your Child Use Money Well

What You'll Learn

1. Identify sources of information about money.
2. Explain how parents can support children in making positive money choices.
3. List steps to making positive money decisions.

Talk about It

Ask your children:

- How do you learn about using money well?
- What are some of the best decisions you've made about money?
- How can I help you make better money choices?

My Notes:

Visit www.bankit.com for more information on making positive money choices.