Welcome and Overview

Three goals for today:

1. Describe an example of the type of people who give.
2. Identify how giving can become part of a budget.
3. Calculate how much to give.

Discuss

Turn to talk to someone near you.

1. Say your first name.
2. Why do you want your teenager to help others?

2-GI-PT

Review and Evaluate

What type of people give?

1. Those who think giving is important.
2. Those who want to help others.
3. Those who want to make their community or world a better place.

2-GI-PT

Review and Evaluate

What are different ways you can give?

1. Give money.
2. Donate belongings.
3. Volunteer your time.

2-GI-PT

Review and Evaluate

What type of giving do you agree with most?

Note: Everyone will have a different answer. Here are some possibilities:

1. Someone asks us to give.
2. We decide we want to give and give to causes we care about.
3. Someone begs us for something.

2-GI-PT

Review and Evaluate

How can giving become part of a budget?

Giving can be a category, just like housing. You set aside money to give each time money comes in.

2-GI-PT

Review and Evaluate

How can you calculate how much to give?

- Start small.
- Americans give an average of between 2 percent and 5 percent.

Review and Evaluate

What kind of giver are you?

Note: Everyone will have a different answer. Here are some possibilities:

- A careful giver who thinks of how giving is part of the budget
- A generous giver who sets aside a certain amount of money to give and just gives it away
- A giver who gives whenever he or she is asked
