

Talking about Money in Your Family

(What Do You Know Now? — Key)

Read each question below. Each question may have more than one correct answer, so circle every correct answer. Add your name and today's date at the bottom. Correct answers are in bold.

1. Whom can you talk to about using money wisely?
  - A. A parent
  - B. Your child
  - C. A friend
  - D. A banker
  - E. A person you don't trust

2. How can you learn about money from your parents and grandparents?
  - A. They can tell you how they spent money as children.
  - B. They can give you money.
  - C. They can tell stories of how previous generations used money.
  - D. They can talk about how they've solved money difficulties.
  - E. You can't, unless they're financial experts.

3. Which emotions can arise when people talk about money?
  - A. Happiness
  - B. Anger
  - C. Sadness
  - D. Frustration
  - E. Fear

4. What's important when you talk about money?
  - A. That you feel safe with the person you're talking to.
  - B. That you convince the other person that you're right.
  - C. That you can be honest about your feelings.
  - D. That you keep talking even when it gets hard.
  - E. That you can be honest about how you use money.

5. How often should you talk about money?
  - A. Often so that you can learn more about using money well.
  - B. Only when you have questions about money.
  - C. Only when you have money.
  - D. When your kids talk about money with you.
  - E. When you want to talk about money.

6. What is most important about talking about money?
  - A. How you think about money
  - B. Your values, your attitudes, and your actions
  - C. How you use money
  - D. Whether or not you have any money
  - E. Avoiding fights about money

Your Name: _____

Today's Date: _____