

Talking about Tough Money Issues

What You'll Learn

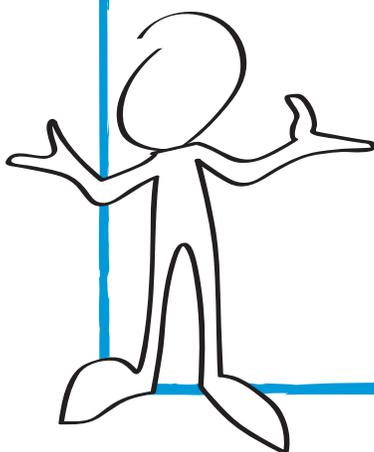

1. The number one worry parents have about the way their kids use money.
2. You should not share certain information with others to protect your identity.
3. There are steps to take for solving tough money issues.

Talk about It

Ask your children:

- What do you do when you have a tough money situation?
- How do you solve a tough money situation?
- Which information do you not share with others?

My Notes:

Visit www.bankit.com for more information on making positive money choices.